

ENVIROMENTAL POLICY

Environment friendly company

The company TARGO PROMOTION GROUP is ready to fulfil the requirements of all its clients in a way that is gentle to the environment. We can reach this goal by continuous increases in environment care within all our activities.

This Environmental policy represents our engagement with environment protection and is obligatory for all employees TARGO PROMOTION GROUP.

In connection with above decision the company management claims that:

- will follow the legislation requirements as well as the requirements of its clients and public in all matters related to the environment protection
 -
- integrate general environmental requirements into all its business activities in order to eliminate a negative effect of its decisions onto the environment; above all the company will prevent the environment pollution
 -
- will regularly evaluate attained targets in the field of the environmental policy, will evaluate its environmental profile and will take important decisions for improvement
 -
- will train its employees in responsibility towards environment so that they would understand, support and maintain the environmental policy of the company
 -
- will offer and provide the projects and services according to quality standards and environmental protection
 -
- will demand its business partners to maintain all principles of environmental approach and improve their process of production
 -
- will discuss with its employees, business partners and public the reference to the environment

The company management presents this Environmental policy to the public.